1. General information

1.1. Introduction

The English for Finance course is an optional module of 5 ECTS included in the 4th year programme of the BSc degree course in Finance and Accounting. It provides students with content and activities leading to achieve an intermediate-advanced level of the lexical, grammatical and communication skills (oral and written) of the English language register of the business environment in the area of finance, in order to help them communicate effectively in such international context in the future.

Students who successfully complete this module are entitled to apply for the 2 ECTS corresponding to the required B1 level of English (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) by presenting the corresponding application form at the faculty office. Please, look up the application procedure at:

<http://wzar.unizar.es/servicios/primer/2matricula/academica/certi.htm>

1.2. Recommendations to take this course

To be successful, the student is recommended to start with at least the level of general English (written and oral) acquired in Bachillerato (A-levels), and which is equivalent to B1 of the Common European Framework. The programme is fully taught in English and communication in the classroom takes place only in this language too. The student is also advised to work on it steadily, which implies attending lessons and practice sessions on regular basis.

4.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

4.1.Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)

The student will prove that he/she has achieved the expected learning results by means of the following assessment tasks:

Global Examination: All students of this module are only evaluated at the end of the semester by means of a global evaluation of the command of their speaking, listening, reading and writing competences in English. Assessment will cover all the material that has been studied in the course and the skills that students are expected to have acquired as independent learners. The examination will be based on the completion of similar tasks to those carried out throughout the course. These will include:

- Delivery of a group presentation
- Listening comprehension exercises
- Reading comprehension exercises
- A written vocabulary and language use test

27551 - Foreign Language for Finances and Accountancy (English)

- Production of written communication texts

The official hours and dates of the final exams can be found on the web page of the faculty.

Assessment criteria

Accuracy in the use of the English language and appropriateness of style (formal register and specific vocabulary); coherent organization of the information adjusting to the respective discourse structure of the different genres; understanding of the main information -as well as in detail- in oral and written texts; correct pronunciation and intonation.

Oral language skills assessment (presentation and listening) will represent 50% of the final mark

Written language skills assessment (reading comprehension, test and written text production) will represent the other 50% of the total mark.

At the beginning of the module, students will receive detailed information about their assessment. This will include:

what tasks students will be expected to carry out clear criteria against which students' work will be assessed what the dates of the assessment tasks (oral and written) are

Second sitting

Same assessment tasks and criteria explained above apply for the second sitting.

5.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

5.1.Methodological overview

The learning process designed for this subject is based on the following activities:

Although part of any class session is likely to involve direct teaching, the emphasis is on student participation in English and the students will be expected to take part actively in discussion and in tasks such as small group and pair work, role play and oral presentations. These activities will include:

- Written and oral communication activities.

27551 - Foreign Language for Finances and Accountancy (English)

- Analysis of professional texts in the area of finance and accounting.
- Oral presentation of projects.
- Problem-solving activities based on professional case studies.

The student will also be expected to spend time studying outside the class using extra facilities and materials to help them develop their expertise as independent language learners.

The teacher will recommend the use of bibliography and printed learning materials at the beginning of the module. To help students to develop an autonomous learning programme, extra supporting materials to consolidate English grammar and pronunciation as well as extra practice materials will be provided in the e-learning platform <https://moodle2.unizar.es/>

5.2.Learning tasks

The programme offered to the students to help them achieve the learning results includes the following activities:
