The learning process designed for this course is based on an active method, given that the student is integrated in a private or public organization to take an apprenticeship in it. The student becomes the agent of his/her own education through personal research, direct contact with reality and the experience with the work group where he belongs. This method is based on:

- A strong motivation in the learning process
- A growing difficulty

27556 - Internships II

- The establishment of a bridge between academic theoretical abstraction and practical reality.
- The detection of errors
- The student's autonomy
- The acquisition of skills in the search for information

5.2.Learning tasks

A range of activities will be offered to the student to help him/her achieve the expected goals:

1. Tutorials and presentation of the work placement report.
2. Working hours adapted to the needs of the partner company and of the student.
3. Individual work: The student will write a preliminary work placement report, an academic report and will present the academic report.
