The learning process designed for this course is based on an active method, given that the student is integrated in a private or public organization to take an apprenticeship in it. The student becomes the agent of his/her own education through personal research, direct contact with reality and the experience with the work group where he belongs. This method is based on:

27667 - Internships

A strong motivation in the learning process

A growing difficulty

The establishment of a bridge between academic theoretical abstraction and practical reality.

The detection of errors

The student's autonomy

The acquisition of skills in the search for information

5.2.Learning tasks

A range of activities will be offered to the student to help him/her achieve the expected goals:

Tutorials and presentation of the work placement report.

Working hours adapted to the needs of the partner company and of the student. Individual work: The student will write a preliminary work placement report, an academic report and will present the academic report.
